2015-16	A Workshop on GDPI (25-09-2015)	120

Date: 25th September, 2015

Venue: Seminar Hall, Old Building

The Placement and Career Development Cell of Ramanujan College organized a Group Discussion (GD) and Personal Interview (PI) workshop for our third-year students which was held on September 25 '2015.

The motive to run this workshop was to educate the students so that they could get familiar with the types of questions that can be asked by the interviewer, how to prepare their resumes and having a proper understanding of each and every part of their resume, the importance of formal dressing code while sitting for an interview and providing them with some useful tips and tricks to improve their communication skills.

These skills could prove useful for the students not just for their postgraduation school interviews but would also act as a catalyst for their career growth.

More than 120 students actively participated with full enthusiasm to learn something new out of the workshop.

The response was quite positive from all the students. Feedback forms were being circulated and we found that the workshop was very informative and helpful to all the participants.

2016-17	Seminar on 'Motivation' by Prof. R.K. Singh, Department of Commerce, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi (26-08-2016)	42

SPECIAL LECTURE REPORT

Prof. R.K. Singh, Department of Commerce, Delhi School of Economics, University of Delhi (26-08-2016)

On 26th August 2016, Prof. R. K. Singh was invited to Ramanujan College to impart his wisdom through a special lecture on 'Motivation'. Dr. R. K. Singh is Professor, Department of Commerce, Delhi School of Economics and also a well respected academic known for his expertise in different academic, administrative and management areas. He has an experience of more than twenty five years not only in the field of teaching, but also training, research, administration and fusion of quantitative and qualitative research. He is a specialist in creating an interface between industry and academic institutions for the benefit of industrial effectiveness, faculty capacity building and students enrichment. Dr Singh earned his master's degree, MPhil and PhD degree from University of Delhi. His area of doctoral research was 'Managing Human Resource Diversity'. The session started with a simple yet intriguing story of Raja Bhoj, the Maharaja of Marwa, who was a learned scholar and a proud individual. While touring his territory with a fellow scholar, the maharaja ignores a common village woman and goes on with his journey travelling around the same circle. After a certain point of time the scholars realises that they are traveling in the same path and have lost their way. Coming to the lady, they ask for directions but the lady first asks them to introduce themselves. After a number of answers that were rejected by the lady, Raja Bhoj gives up and asks the lady for the correct answer. The lady gives the obvious answer that was earlier rejected by her and that was the day maharaja understood that one should not consider themselves superior in any sense. The lesson from this story is that when your mind is clear from all preconception then only can you be determined to realise and try to achieve your goal. Prof. R.K. Singh emphasized that one of the most important part of motivation is to decide the most correct goal. The Goal should be set after complete knowledge and understanding of the subject. We were enlightened about the essence of a subject and how it revolves around a nucleus. There are three stages of education: Proto, Deutro and Tertiary. The level of Proto comes first when the basic understanding of a subject is taught and the emphasis is on the skill or method of the concerned subject without much focus of the intricate details. The next level is Deutro which involves creating behaviour and generating a habitual interest. This is an elevation where there is participation from the other end and a creation of interest. Continuous persuasion of this developed interest leads to the third stage: Tertiary, which involves the critical analysis of the subject. To reach this level, there is a lot of intellectual thinking, interest and motivation that is essential. Without proper knowledge of the subject, motivation in a sense is ineffective. Then Prof. RK Singh drove our attention to the basic step that is needed to be followed so as to be in accordance and decide an appropriate goal. Just the complete knowledge of a subject does not guarantee the most suitable goal but another major part of the mix is 'What you are capable and compatible with'. Sachin Tendulkar can sing but not as good as Lata Mangeshkar, similarly a person might be satisfactory in a field but your potential would not be justified as this field is not relevant to your knowledge. The current trend is 'Act now, Think later' but this cannot be the case. Prof. RK Singh, with a enlightening story, made us realise the true importance of thinking before acting. The fact that an opportunity can only be realised to its full capacity when we have the necessary interest, knowledge and capability to do justice to it. Later he shared another intuiting story which highlighted the importance of team work. Team work is a important and essential part of any organisation no matter the field. It provides a ample opportunity to learn, grow and evolve, which is constant for every organisation in this dynamic environment. Later the emphasis of the lecture shifted to 'Emotional Intelligence'. We were presented with a more practical and analytical approach of the four components of Emotional Intelligence: Know Self, Know Others, Manage Self and Manage Others. At the end of this enlightening and informative special lecture, we had an understanding of the concept, its specific and an increased interest. We learned how to be good in terms of analysis, decision making and that the only constant in this environment is change which can be managed by motivation and complete knowledge of all variables.

2016-17	Seminar on Motivation by Mrs. Debjani (17-09-2016)	42

Report

On 17th of September, 2016 the BMS students got the privilege of attending the training session on Motivation by Mrs. Debjani. She started the session with her energetic smile and a wonderful story of Jonathan Seagull who is no ordinary gull. Jon transcended the boundary set for his clan which earmarked the gulls for eating and conception that they cannot fly for long distances. His determination and will to live his life in his own way, whether he succeeds or fails, motivated all of us to pursue our dreams, even if it means breaking stereotypes and walking all alone on that new path. She related the story to our life as managers and emphasised on elements required to be a good leader. Along with the courage to lead the path, an efficient leader should be good in influencing other people to join his way as Jon was able to do. The challenges a leader will face can be numerous. But his inner strength and desire can motivate him to out show all the difficulties. Next she made us all sit in a circle and asked us to ponder upon few of the most important motivators in our life. The discussion after that was really informative. It opened our mind to different perceptions. The exercise was extremely helpful, as managers while working in a team need to be considerate and sensitive about ideology and needs of all its members. The various motivators ranged from intrinsic to extrinsic, with intrinsic being driven by passion, determination and inner strength of a person and extrinsic by goals, need for recognition from others and the monetary benefits. The healthy dialogue after that led us to the conclusion that the extrinsically motivating factors may change in the long run, as and when our goals are achieved and we become mature enough to give priority to our inner satisfaction rather than running for appreciation from others. While most of the intrinsically motivating factors may remain constant or increase in intensity with the experiences in life. As a manager the person's most important task for the day is managing his time judiciously. Mam made us understand the importance of time management with the help of an example. Here, a jar depicted the total time during the day, big pebbles- most important activities, medium pebbles- less important tasks and small pebbles being representative of least important activities for the day. If a manager first focuses on completing the trivialities, then less important tasks and finally moving on to the most important activities in the remaining time of the day, there may be a possibility of all the big pebbles not fitting in, due to the smaller pebbles filling the jar. However, if we focus on filling the big pebbles first, then the smaller pebbles will find their own space and even if some of the smaller pebbles are left, then who cares. She instilled in us the value of prioritising our responsibilities in life. Finally the session moved on with mam stating 'belief' as the most important motivator in any person's life. We again engaged in a very intriguing and healthy debate on this. It took some examples and theories for mam to make us agree and understand the notion of belief and how it can drive a person to do all positive as well the most negative activities in life. The entire session was so informative and fruitful that we were hooked till the very end to learn something new each minute. While supplementing our theoretical knowledge on the topic with real time examples, mam was a great motivator herself throughout the session. I would like to thank her for helping us better our concepts and imparting such a knowledgeable lecture. We really look forward to the upcoming session with Mrs. Debjani.

2018-19	"Film Making Workshop" (February 20, 2019 to March 7, 2019)	28

Report

Women Development Cell, Ramanujan College organised a Film Making workshop from 20 Feb to 7Mar 2019 in collaboration with Breakthrough NGO: The sessions were conducted in college premises for the student members of the society, the resource person Ms. Shubhika, team member of Breakthrough NGO, introduced the students to basics of film making and two films were made one on the theme of stalking and another on the theme of life of a girl.

Workshop classes used to start sharply at 9:30 AM in porta cabin 106. All the members attended the workshop with enthusiasm. The event witnessed a participation of about 28 society members and we received a positive response from all the society members.

There were so many fun activities to make students understand stereotypes and the signs of suppression enforced by society. The sessions helped society members to think in a broad manner and improve their perspective towards gender representation and equality. Many videos made by Breakthrough were screened, such as 'Mann ke Manjeere', 'Bell Bajao' and videos related to women's representation in cinema. Ms. Shubhika worked very hard to make students aware of how to help those they see in pain and how one should not be silent if they face any kind of harassment.

She gave small assignments like 3 pictures with different angles and 2 short films, which later resulted in short films on big issues. 7 March was the day of the screening- of all the hard work done by students under the guidance of Ms. Shubhika. The event started with an address note and felicitation of people from Breakthrough by our principal sir Dr. S.P. Aggarwal.

Ms. Priyanka and Ms. Shubhika shared their experience with Ramanujan College. In the end, certificates were given to the students and along with that some students were felicitated with Breakthrough T-shirts for their hard work during the sessions.

It was indeed an unforgettable experience for all of us with Ms. Shubhika. The students are very thankful to her contribution in improving their perspective and knowledge about gender-based issues. The programme ended with a vote of thanks by our respected principal sir Dr. S.P. Aggarwal.

2018-19	A workshop on "Leadership and its Applications in the Practical Context" by Ms. Khushali Gandhi, renowned psychotherapist and behavioural trainer (05-03-2019)	35

REPORT

Leadership is the influencing process of leaders and followers to achieve organisational objectives through productive and positive change. Though there has been debate about whether leaders are born or they are made, the effective leaders are not simply born or made. They are born with some leadership abilities and they develop the others. Vince Lombardi said, "leaders are made, they are not born, they are made by hard effort." There are also questions if the skills of effective leadership can be taught or developed?

With the belief of becoming better each day with hard work and determination, the department hosted this one-day workshop in order to inculcate and enrich the skills of leadership in the students who are the leaders of tomorrow. The resource person for the informative workshop was Ms. Khushali Gandhi. Ms. Gandhi is a renowned psychotherapist and behavioural trainer, based in Delhi. Ms. Gandhi is also the co-founder of a mental health start up, Mind the Gap.

Department of Applied Psychology, Ramanujan College, University of Delhi conducted a workshop on the topic "Leadership" on 5th March, 2019. The workshop was conducted specially for the students of the Applied Psychology department.

The session was rather insightful and intriguing for all the attendees, especially the young budding psychologists who got to know about the skillsets of leadership from an experienced resource person who has first hand experience working in the field. The workshop began with a formal introduction of the guest speaker followed by a welcome address by the TIC on behalf of the department. Following that, the resource person was handed the podium to address the attendees. The workshop was very engaging with a bunch of discussions of real-life situations and fun filled activities.

Report

SEMINAR ON "PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT"

On 6th September'19, a seminar on PERSONALITY DEVELOPMENT was conducted in the college premises. Nearly 50 students attended it. The resource persons were Mr Siddharth and Ms Neerja from IBS.

The core goal was to encourage students to be optimistic and to have a positive approach towards life. Most importantly, students learnt about how the personality of a person defines his/her career.

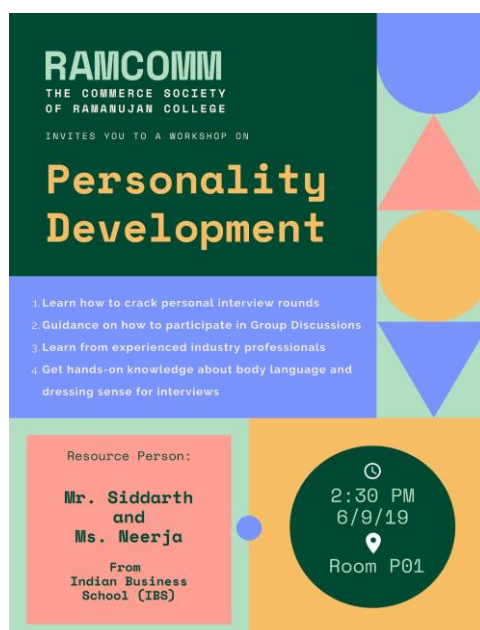

The main objective of the Seminar was to familiarize youngsters with the emerging ideas and trends on how to develop their personality in the 21st century. Mr Siddharth started with making the crowd aware of the history and evolution of the personality development concept. He shared some of his personal experiences pointing out how important is to be an extrovert. He made the crowd understand that one personality development test cannot define one's personality and how a moment in life can change everything.

He concluded by recommending the crowd to believe in themselves.

Then Mrs Neerja asked the crowd, "why do we say we are not perfect? Do we know what we are lacking? If yes then 80% of the problem is solved the 20% left is to work on it." Making the session interactive, she asked the crowd about their weakness and gave suggestions to solve them. She even gave certain tips on anger management and building self-confidence.

To sum up, it was a well-thought-out Seminar of motivating the students to discover themselves

2019-20	Motivational Session by Amanjeet Singh (10-02-2019)	110

Venue: Ghalib Auditorium

Date: 10th February, 2019

The Placement and Career Development Cell of Ramanujan College conducted a motivation speaker session on 10th February, 2019 from 12 Noon to 2:00 pm in Ghalib Auditorium of Ramanujan College, University of Delhi. The speaker for the session Mr. Amanjeet Singh spoke on the topic "I am going to succeed" highlighting the importance of willpower and self-confidence required to succeed in life. The session was attended by 110 students. The session was kept keeping in mind the confidence boost and believe the students require in themselves as they near the end of their college life and venture into new opportunities

The presenter, who is a source of encouragement for students, presented students motivational examples from his own life and encouraged them to be self-motivators. He talked on how positive thinking and attitude bring optimism into one's life, and how such good adjustments can make one happier and more successful.

He proceeded with playing a video for the students and then questioned them about what they perceived from the video, to get an idea of the mindset of students when they are at such a crucial point of their life. He then spoke about how it is important to have a career-oriented approach at this stage in life and not be distracted by anything which could be harmful for them. He asked the students about the distractions they face and the reasons why they are not able to concentrate on their goals. The students interacted with him and very soon everyone started sharing what hindered them from achieving their ambitions. The workshop also focused on making the students build positive 'self- esteem 'and discover their true potential. It covered the key elements required for a student to be successful in academics and later life

Nearing the end of the session, Mr. Singh then advised the students what they can do to not get distracted like following the technique of No, Stop, Stare and Meditation. He also suggested making To-Do Lists and keeping short term goals. He emphasized on having realistic goals and rewarding oneself once the short-term goals are completed. At last, a small activity was performed where the students were divided into groups of 5 each and were told to make a list of elements that should be included and sacrificed in daily life for better concentration in our lifestyle.

The session ended by a vote of Thanks from our principal Mr. SP Aggarwal who addressed the students. After the session, the students were delighted and were even willing to have regular sessions like these.

2019-20	Aarambh 1.0 Job & Internship Fair (02-03-2020)	750

The Placement and Career Development cell of Ramanujan College Delhi University organized and put forth its very first Job/Internship Fair- AARAMBH on March 2, 2020. The event was organized in collaboration with other societies of the college.

The event commenced with receiving of HRs from different reputed companies taking part in the fair. They were escorted to the Ghalib auditorium where the inauguration of the event took place. Our principal Dr S.P. Aggarwal gave the HRs a warm welcome and emphasis on the importance of internship and placement drives.

37+ companies participated in the job fair creating a good pool of various jobs & internship opportunities for the students.

Companies like ICICI Prudential, HDFC, Cholamandalam , Suryoday Bank, Tech Mahindra, Toppr, Hundred Plus, One point One Solutions, Metvy ,Alankrit, Thomson Digital, One Second Impression, Seabird Logistics , Interglobe, Indialends, Planetspark, Policy Bazaar, Just Dial , Max Healthcare, Glinks, Unnati, Utkarsh small finance are some of the few which participated in the fair.

There is no doubt that Aarambh was a huge success as 500+ students participated in the fair. The footfall in each company for the interview remained high and no company was sitting idle in the first half of the fair. The second half saw a comparatively thin crowd as of the screening session that was taking place simultaneously. The students were in high spirits for the various reputed companies that came for recruitment.

The overall management of the event was highly appreciated by the HRs. Aarambh ended up with huge success and gave massive opportunities to students that they grabbed. Many students got shortlisted for their dream companies. Happy faces were spotted at the end of the event.
