ONLINE ADMISSION REPORT 2020

1 Principal' address:

Dear Colleagues,

For the first time admissions for the academic session 2020-21 were totally online right from applying to the University of Delhi to final admissions in the college.

Online admission has its advantages as it is very convenient for applicants, especially outstation applicants. It is even beneficial for the colleges as there is no public dealing and the same work is done more efficiently with lesser resources. It is even beneficial for the environment as a lot of commuting was saved and over that, a lot of paper and other natural resources were saved.

Although the online system has made the admission simple but adopting to the online system was not easy as the whole computer interface was introduced for the first time and University made live the software on the first day of admission so there was no time for staff training, which made it a bit challenging. But with time the staff became adaptable to the whole new system.

I thank University Admission Branch for constant coordination and support to the college.

The whole admission process in the college was smooth with the support of all the staff members. All the applications were processed in a time-bound manner and proper attention was given to each and every query of the applicants through mail and telephonic calls. I thank all my teaching as well as non-teaching staff for conducting the online admissions successfully.

Regards

Dr. S.P. Aggarwal

ONLINE ADMISSION REPORT 2020

Total cancellation from fifth cut-off onwards

ONLINE ADMISSION REPORT 2020

11 Observations from admission procedure:

1. For vacant seats:

a. Under EWS category:

EWS seats were vacant in all sixteen courses as only few applications were under EWS, even after substantially reducing EWS cut-off. The situation is same in most of the University of Delhi colleges. The reason for this is that the applicants were not able to apply for EWS certificate in lockdown and could not apply under EWS category during application process of University of Delhi.

b. Under OBC, SC and ST category: The vacant seat status is almost similar to last year.

2. For cancellation and withdrawal:

It is observed that major cancellation happened from first and second cut-off which means admission in college got settled from fourth cut-off. This is an improvement over last year admissions as last year college got settled from fifth cut-off.

The admissions for this academic year ended on December 31, 2020
