NOTICE

Subject: Prohibition of Victory Processions and Celebratory Marches Following Declaration of Election Results

In accordance with the Notice No. DUSU/Elec/2026/ dated 18.09.2026 issued by the Chief Election Officer, DUSU Elections 2026–2027, University of Delhi, and in compliance with the directions contained therein, all concerned are hereby informed that no victory procession, celebratory march, rally, parade or similar public demonstration shall be permitted inside or outside the College campus following the announcement of the College Election results.

All victorious candidates and their supporters shall strictly desist from organizing or participating in any such procession, rally, parade or activity which may disrupt public order or traffic or otherwise violate the directions of the Hon'ble Delhi High Court/University.

Any violation of the above directions shall attract disciplinary action by the College and may also have other consequences under the applicable rules/law.

All victorious candidates are directed to ensure strict adherence to the above directions and to maintain peace, discipline and decorum following the declaration of the election results.
